

We're giving away a holiday to Sardinia including return flights and three nights at Su Gologone

We're giving away a three-night holiday for two to Sardinia, including a stay at the white-washed country house of Su Gologone, as well as return flights from the UK.

The winner and a guest will stay in the hotel's new Wild Suite, where a sheltered canopy bed sits on painted wooden decking high in the treetops. Sleep under the stars, or head inside to the big, light-filled suite with its timber beams and tiled floors. Drink morning coffee on the terrace's plump sofas, and then relax in the outdoor hot tub or in the rattan hammock.

Breakfast is included in the prize. Choose from local produce, including Oliena honey, jams, cheeses and charcuterie, as well as freshly made breads and pastries.

Spend your days relaxing by the spring-fed pool. Alternatively, take the hotel's bikes out to explore the surrounding mountains and countryside. There's also an outdoor cinema, cookery classes and excursions to Sardinia's soft, sandy beaches.

Return flights from London to Olbia for two adults are included, as are transfers in Sardinia.

This competition closes on 2 October 2018.
